Broggin House Hall Lane, Bradfield S6 6LE

Once the historic Damkeeper's Quarters, this exquisite 16th-century Grade II listed farmhouse has been thoughtfully renovated throughout, blending period charm with modern luxury. Overlooking the stunning Strines Reservoir, this three-bedroom, two-bathroom family home offers an idyllic retreat for those who love the great outdoors.

Accessed via a picturesque one-mile private driveway (a 4x4 vehicle is recommended), the property enjoys a wonderfully secluded setting, with panoramic waterside views right from your window.

Ground Floor:

A welcoming utility room leads into a spacious kitchen and dining area, featuring a magnificent original 1600s stone fireplace — a true centrepiece of the home. From here, you'll find the hallway, cloakroom with WC and basin, a comfortable lounge, and a study, perfect for home working.

First Floor:

Upstairs reveals a beautifully appointed principal bedroom with en-suite shower room, a generous second double bedroom, and a third single bedroom — ideal for a child, guest, or dressing room.
